

Property (Relationships) Act

Trust Structuring, Asset Planning and tax advantages

Ferne Bradley & Sharon Bennett

– Mackintosh Bradley & Price

Continuing Professional Development - Receive up to 3 Continuing Professional Development hours for attending this course.

Contents

Presenter Biography – Ferne Bradley	6
Presenter Biography – Sharon Bennett	6
Course Outline	7
Section 1: Why should you care about relationship property law?	8
Advisers	8
Trustees	8
Business persons and professionals	9
Section 2: Timing issues	11
The Property (Relationships) Act regime	11
Relationship property rights are inchoate	11
Owing relationship partner	11
Non-owning relationship partner	11
Relationships of short duration	12
3 years is the usual period	12
Some earlier relationships are taken into account	12
The usual rules do not apply	13
Marriage and civil unions of short duration	13
De facto unions of short duration	13
Shares in property	14
Shares determined on separation	14
Relationship property is a pool not a collection	14
Value of property	14
Prima facie valued as at hearing date	14
Discretion to use a different date	15
Use of property	15
Section 3: Dispositions of relationship property	16
Inter-relationship with general trust and common law	16
Dispositions to third parties: s 44	16
Effect rather than intent	16
Third party recipients	17
Tracing	17
Dispositions to trusts: ss44A, 44B and 44C	17
An alternative to s44	17
Compensation	18
Factors the Court is required to consider	19
Purchases from third parties	19
Provision of information: s44B	19
Testamentary trusts excluded: s44A	19
Retrospective effect	19
Variation of trusts: s33(3)(m)	20
Dispositions to Qualifying companies: s44D, 44E and 44F	20
S 182 Family Proceedings Act	20
Other avenues to access trust capital/income	21
Beneficial interests in trusts	21
Dispositions in general: s43	22
Dispositions of family chattels: s45	22
Section 4: Equal or unequal sharing of property	23
Application of the PRA	23
Separate and relationship property	23

Defining relationship property and separate property	23
Relationship property	23
Separate property	24
Equal division is presumed	24
Unequal sharing	25
When separate property becomes relationship property: s9A	25
Application of relationship property	25
Actions of other party	25
Used with consent	26
Property acquired by inheritance, gift or as a trust beneficiary: s10	26
No or 2 potential family homes: s11A, 11B, and 16	27
Extraordinary circumstances: s13	27
Relationships of short duration: s14, 14A & 14AA	28
Lump sum living standard compensation: s15 and 15A	28
Sustenance or diminution of separate property: s17 and 17A	29
Misconduct: S18A	29
Post separation contributions or dissipation: s18B and 18C	29
Refund of personal debts: s20E	30
Section 5: Third parties, debts and insolvency	31
Third parties	31
The parties' ability to deal with their own property	31
Third party obtains good title	31
Loans between family members	31
Debts	32
Relationship debt or separate/personal debt	32
Tax debts	32
Inter party loans of relationship property	32
Inter party loans of separate property	33
Creditors generally	34
Unsecured creditors	34
Transactions intended to defeat creditors	34
Agreements made or deemed made for valuable consideration	35
Official Assignee	35
The family home	36
Mortgagees	36
Implications for certain parties:	37
Settlors	37
Gifting programmes	37
Ownership of debt back	37
Tenants in common or individual accounts	37
Writing off debt by will	37
Beneficiaries	38
Relationship or separate property	38
Discretionary or non-discretionary	38
Bankruptcy and relationship property claims	39
Trustees	39
Directors	39
Shareholders	40
Partnerships	40
Section 6: Taxation issues	42
Gift duty:	42
GST	43
Income tax:	44
The purpose of subpart FB	44
Depreciation	44
Land & Timber	45
Companies	45
Trading stock	46

Livestock	46
Pensions	46
General	46
Section 7: Implications for the drafting of trust documents	48
Provisions to divide assets in the event of separation	48
Preservation of the ongoing influence of each partner	49
Power to appoint and remove trustees	49
Whether to leave power to survivor	49
Whether to use "Appointors"	49
Scoping the role of Appointors	50
Provisions to limit the appointment of certain classes of beneficiary	50
Initial discretionary beneficiaries	50
Future beneficiaries	51
Power to determine final distribution	51
Variations and resettlements	51
Section 8: Valuation of relationship property	52
The need to value	52
Terms and conditions of purchase	52
Basic principles of valuation	53
Choice of valuation method	53
Valuation of a business	53
Assets based valuation	53
Capitalisation of earnings	54
Market value	54
Super-profits	54
Other valuation factors	55
Shares	55
Bundle of rights	55
Employment contracts	55
Sole practitioners & specialists	55
Goodwill	55
Restraint of trade	55
Superannuation schemes	55
Accumulation during the relationship	55
Section 31	56
Other assets	56
Life insurance policies	56
Current accounts	56
Land	56
Debts	56
Common adjustments	57
Costs of sale	57
Third party interests	57
Minority shareholding & restraint of trade obligations	57
Evidence	57
Any relevant evidence	57
Accounts	57
Market transaction	58
Appendices	59
Appendix 1: Relationship property checklists	59
"Pre-nuptial" or "Contracting Out" agreements (before or during a relationship)	59
Separation agreements – contents checklist	62
Appendix 2: Relationship Property balance sheet (on Excel)	65
Appendix 3: Information needs	66
Initial information to assist in the valuation of a significant company	66
Initial information to assist with relationship property issues for private clients	67
Appendix 4: Bankruptcy clauses	68

(i) Will clause	68
(i) Trust deed clause	68
Appendix 5: GST letter and clause	69
(i) Clause for insertion into separation agreement or contracting out agreement to protect the transferor in respect of unpaid GST by the transferee	69
(ii) Letter to IRD requesting transfer of transferee's GST refund to transferor's GST account:	69
(iii) Acknowledgement of debt to protect the transferor in respect of unpaid GST by the transferee	70
Appendix 6: Trust deed clauses for relationship partners	71
(i) Clause for separation of parties	71
(i) Clause limiting future beneficiaries	72
Appendix 7: Property (Relationships) Act 1976	73
Appendix 8: Estate and Gift Duties Act 1968	104
Appendix 9: Income Tax Act 2007	106
Appendix 10: Family Proceedings Act 1980	117
Appendix 11: Land Transfer Act 1952	118
Appendix 12: Property Law Act 1952	119
Appendix 13: Statutes	120
Appendix 14: Glossary	121
Appendix 15: Useful trust and relationship property references	122
Books and Texts	122
Other booklets and publications	122
Further references	122
Background reading for clients:	123